From our CSIOP President: Welcome Back!

It's hard to believe it's the start of another school year! We're excited to welcome new members to CSIOP and happy to have many returning members back. CSIOP is looking forward to serving you all this year with a variety of professional development and social activities. We hope that you take advantage of all of these opportunities this year!

I want to recognize the dedicated group of officers that we have for CSIOP this year, who have already been planning some exciting events for you this semester:

Alice Brawley – Vice President
Tiffany Cooper – Treasurer
Janelle Cheung – Secretary
Mira Pekel – Media Coordinator
Kandice Goguen – Social Affairs Coordinator
Dana Verhoeven – Alumni & Undergraduate Liaison

I also want to thank our outgoing officers from 2014-2015 for contributions to making CSIOP a great success last year:

Brooke Baker – President
Stephen Robertse – Treasurer
Hannah Murphy – Media coordinator

This Fall CSIOP has several great events planned. This includes some of our yearly favorites, like the Flag Football game with HFES, our Alumni tailgate, and our Adopt-a-Family holiday party and service project. The social events calendar gives more details on these events, and be sure to watch out for updates on the CSIOP Facebook page as well! As always, we're happy to hear from you if you have any suggestions for speakers or events you’d like to see or ideas for improving CSIOP. Please feel free to share those with any of your CSIOP officers.

Looking forward to another great year with CSIOP!

Kristen Jennings

Jamie Fynes
Hi! I'm Jamie Fynes, and I'm a new grad student in the Industrial-Organizational Psychology program. I'm from a small town in northeast Ohio. I got my B.A. in Psychology from Walsh University in Ohio. A year after I graduated, I attended the University of Tennessee where I got my M.S. in Sport Psychology. My research interests are varied and they continue to expand. Some of my interests include authenticity in the workplace, personality, care in the workplace, cultural diversity and stereotypes, and the effects of minority identification on organizational leadership behaviors. I enjoy working out, sport-related activities, and going to concerts and comedy shows when I can. I'm a fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Cleveland Cavaliers, the Ohio State Buckeyes, the Tennessee Volunteers, and, of course, the Clemson Tigers! I'm really looking forward to these next few years at Clemson.

Allie Elder
Hello, my name is Allie Elder and I am a 1st year I/O PhD student at Clemson University. I am originally from Cincinnati, OH and I have a B.A. in Psychology from The Ohio State University. My primary research interests are occupational health psychology, organizational stress, work-life balance, and mood in the workplace. Currently, I am working with Dr. June Pilcher and looking at how decreasing sedentary behavior at work can affect physical health and emotional well-being. Outside of school I enjoy trying new restaurants, dancing, baking, and anything related to coffee. I also enjoy spending time with my husband, Carl, and playing with our cat and dog, Lorenzo and Chester.

Adam Cox
Hi, my name is Adam! I am originally from West Virginia, but have lived in Greenville, South Carolina for the majority of my life. My interest in Industrial/Organizational Psychology stems from my military service, as my experience allowed me to gain an appreciation for the importance of work and the potential it has to enrich or detract from people’s lives. As a result, my professional background is a combination of I/O-related experience and formal education. My research interests include Occupational Health and Safety, adaptive performance, leadership, and personality and stress in the workplace. Outside of school, and spending time with family and friends, I divide

Jaclyn Gioffre
Hi, my name is Jaclyn! I am from Greenwich, Connecticut and I graduated from Bryant University in May with my BA in Applied Psychology. My interest in I/O psychology started during my time at Bryant and has grown from there. My research interests include leadership and leadership development and teamwork. Outside of school, I enjoy watching sports and spending times with friends and my family when I can.

Emily Burnett
Emily received her Bachelor's in Psychology in 2009 from Guilford College. After spending several years as a baker, cake decorator, and bakery manager, she has returned her focus to Psychology by pursuing a PhD in I/O Psychology at Clemson. Her current research interests include ethical decision making within organizations and courage in the workplace. Emily lives in Piedmont with her husband, dog, and cat. During her free time, Emily enjoys good food, drink, and the company of friends and family.
