INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGISTS

WHO ARE WE?

Industrial Organizational Psychology graduate students pursuing our masters and doctoral degrees from Clemson University.

Our mission is to:

Apply principles from psychology and related fields to help understand and improve human behavior at work

Provide data-driven recommendations to maximize organizational functioning

Promote improvements for worker safety, health, and well-being

Provide effective management techniques for human resources

WE NEED THE EXPERIENCE
YOU NEED THE HELP.

We have gained the skills and knowledge necessary to enter the job market, however, we would like your help in expanding our experiences.

PRO-BONO
