Article X. - Amendments

Section 1 This Constitution and By-Laws, which are now adopted, or any hereafter adopted, may be amended, revised or repealed at any “announced meeting” of this Association by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership present or voting by absentee electronically, provided that proper and sufficient notice of the proposed changes have been furnished to the membership not less than thirty days prior to the opening date of said “announced meeting.”

Section 2 All amendments or revisions so made shall go into effect upon adoption.

BY-LAWS

Article I. - Membership

- Section 1 Any County Extension Agent, County Extension Director, State Extension Specialist, Extension Associate or State Extension Administrator who possesses a Baccalaureate or higher degree in agriculture, forestry, or related field and who subscribes to the NACAA and SCACAA aims and purposes set forth in the Constitution and By-Laws shall constitute membership of the SCACAA. Any member can continue to be an active member after “retirement,” upon payment of dues, in order to fulfill prior leadership obligations in either the state or national organization, pending approval of the Executive Committee.
- Section 2 Any County Extension Agents, County Extension Directors, State Extension Specialists, Extension Associates or State Extension Administrators who have been regular members as listed in Section 1, Article I, shall be considered life members of the Association upon payment of one life membership fee as determined by the membership of the Association, without voting privileges and without being required to pay annual dues.

Article II. - Officers and Directors

- Section 1 Any officer, director, or committee member resigning or retiring from the position of County Extension Agent, County Extension Director, State Extension Specialist, Extension Associate or State Extension Administrator shall automatically vacate the office held at the time of resignation or retirement, except as noted in Article I, Section 1.
- Section 2 The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the approval of bills to be paid by the Treasurer.

Article III. - Vacancies

- Section 1 In absence or inability of the President, President Elect, Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer to serve, that office in either case shall be filled until the first Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference thereafter through appointment by the remaining members of the Executive Committee.

Article IV. - Committees

- Section 1 Prior to the Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference of the SCACAA the President Elect shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, various committees that will function during the coming year and adhere to the National Committees as closely as possible. Special committees may be appointed by the President at any time during the year in order to execute more adequately the work of the Association. Committee Chairs will be installed at the Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference. The Committee terms will commence on the first day of the month following the annual meeting of the NACAA following their election.

Section 2 All such committees are directly responsible to the officers and Executive Committee of this Association. Committee reports shall not be released until they have been voted on and approved by the members of the Association. Committee reports considered as being confidential by the officers will not be released for publication.

Article V. - Fees

Section 1 Annual membership fees shall be set by the SCACAA Executive Committee prior to the membership drive for that year. Dues will be paid directly to the Treasurer and are due on a date determined annually by the Executive Committee. From each member's dues, national dues will be sent to the National Association and the remainder used for furthering the objectives of the SCACAA.

Article VI. -Administrators

Section 1 All Extension administrative personnel who meet the membership requirements as outlined in Article I, Section 1 of the By-Laws, may become members with voting privileges upon payment of the annual membership fee.
