

About Us!

Bosom Buddies is a group of breast cancer survivors and patients of all ages and stages.

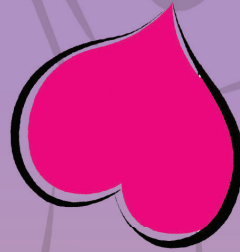

Our mission at Bosom Buddies is to provide love, support, encouragement and resources for breast cancer survivors throughout the Clemson area. We inspire hope through community, laughter, and friendship. We Fight, Heal, Thrive, and Survive - Together!

What Cancer Cannot Do
It cannot cripple love
It cannot shatter hope
It cannot corrode faith
It cannot destroy peace
It cannot kill friendship
It cannot suppress memories
It cannot silence courage
It cannot invade the soul
It cannot steal eternal life
It cannot conquer the spirit

Recommended Resources

While the internet has many great resources, it can also spread misinformation and unnecessarily negative outlooks on breast cancer. Some resources recommended by our healthcare professionals include:

- American Breast Cancer Society (ACS.org)
- Breast Cancer 360 (breastcancer360.org)
- Susan G. Komen Foundation (ww5.komen.org)
- American Cancer Society (cancer.org)

Bosom Buddies

A Support Group for Those Fighting Breast Cancer in the Upstate

Here to Help!

Our group has remained strong for over three decades due to our compassion and flexibility. We understand everyone is busy, so we try to plan events to accommodate our members.

Members participate by attending luncheons and other events, or by simply communicating via social media or email correspondence.

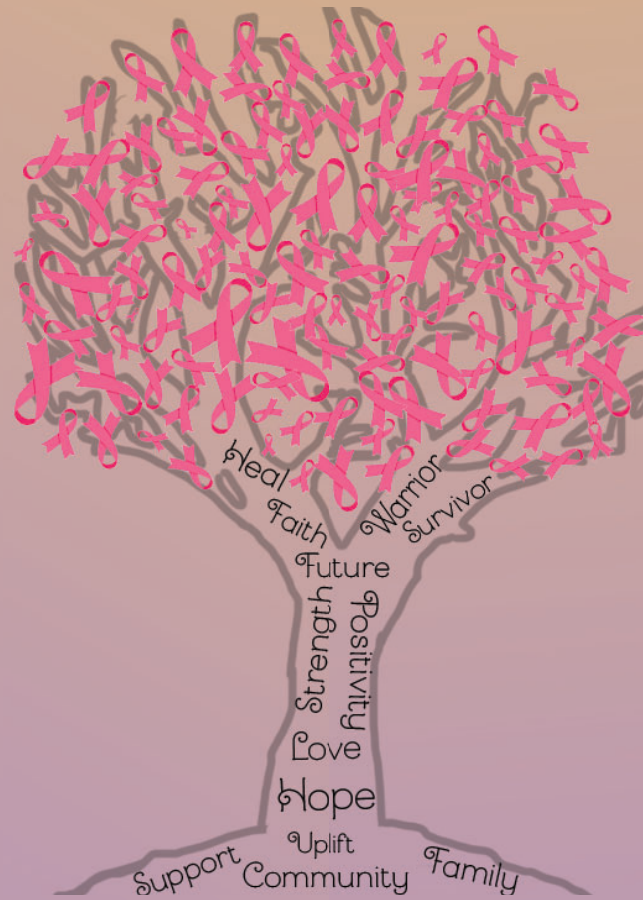

We are here to provide whatever support and resources you need!

What We Do

- Regular Meetings
- Luncheons
- Chemo Support Bags
- Shared Experiences
- Social Group Activities
- Positive Support
- Treatment Support
- Community Outreach

We know firsthand that breast cancer can be a long, hard battle, but we also know that nothing compares to having constant bright, positive and knowledgeable support systems to see you through this journey.

 Fight Together  Heal Together  Laugh Together
